Wed Before April Goes Out.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ROANOKE, VA., April 30.—A pretty wedding was celebrated to-night at a church of one of the prettiest of the spring season. The young people were Miss Bettie Morrison Chewing, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Chewing, and Mr. Howard Campbell, of Lewisburg, W. Va. The church was beautifully decorated for the happy event, and crowded with friends of the pretty and popular young bride. The bride party entered the church to the strains of Hoffmann's wedding march, played on the organ by Professor P. Rasmussen. The bride entered with her father, and met the groom and his best man at the altar. Rev. W. C. Hays, the pastor, officiated. Mr. Granville Campbell, of Baltimore, brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Mary Cooke, maid of honor. The bridesmaids and groomsmen were Miss Lila Ross, of Williamsburg, Va.; Miss Annette, of Lewisburg, Va.; Miss Minnie Hickman, of Hampton, and Mr. A. G. Chewing, Jr., Miss Alice J. and Mr. Malcolm J. Dunham, of Cambridge, of Buena Vista; Miss Annie Harvey and Mr. Mason Bell, of Lewisburg; (usher)—Lydia Hammond and W. A. Carpenter, Jr.
A reception was given to the bride party at the home of the bride, on Eighth Avenue, Southwest, after the ceremony.
The couple left on the midnight train on a Northern tour. The bride's presents were unusually numerous and beautiful.

SOUTHWEST WEDDING.

Miss Elizabeth Robinson Bride of Mr. John Ingles.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WYTHEVILLE, VA., April 30.—A marriage of much interest to the people of Wythe and adjoining counties, owing to the prominence of the contracting parties, was celebrated to-day at noon at the residence of the late John W. Robinson, when his young daughter, Elizabeth, became the bride of Mr. John Ingles, a prominent official of the South and Western Railroad. Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, only a few of the relatives and intimate friends of the bride and groom were present.
Promptly at the hour named, the bride, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Graham Robinson, who gave her away, and the groom, with his best man, Mr. Edmund Powell, entered the beautiful and tastefully decorated parlors, where the solemn vows were taken. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. E. P. Kahl, presiding officer of the Abingdon Circuit, a delightful luncheon was served, when the bride and groom, followed by the best wishes of their friends, drove to Max Meadows and took the afternoon train for the East.

Hudson—Lutton.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CRUWE, VA., April 30.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized here this morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Lutton, on Virginia Avenue. The contracting parties were Miss Maude Lutton and Mr. Joseph E. Hudson, of Danville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Paul Bradley, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. George Johnston. During the ceremony Miss Grace Tucker sang "Love's Old Dream."
The bride entered with her father, Mr. A. G. Lutton, and was met at an improvised altar by the groom, who was attended by his best man, Mr. Herbert Howlett. The bride's costume was a gray traveling gown.
After congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Hudson were driven to Burkeville, where they boarded the Southern train.

MAY FESTIVAL TO BEGIN TO-MORROW

Dr. Peters Expects Great Things of Adult Chorus
This Year.

The fourteenth annual festival of the Wednesday Club will begin at the Academy of Music to-morrow evening, in the presence of a brilliant assemblage of society people and music-lovers.

The finely trained adult chorus of the club, together with the Boston Festival Orchestra, will sing "The Creation," by Haydn. Dan Beddoe, tenor; Henri G. Scott, basso, and Corinne Ryder-Kelsey, soprano, will be the soloists.

The adult chorus, under the able direction of Dr. R. H. Peters, has reached, according to the conductor's own expression, the highest state of proficiency that it has ever attained. Of the soloists it can be said that none better have ever appeared here.

The New York Times of March 15, 1907, had the following to say of the singing of Ryder-Kelsey, in connection with her appearance at the concert of the New York Philharmonic Society, March 15th and 16th:

"Mrs. Kelsey sang 'With Verdure Clad' for the third time publicly in this city within a few weeks, and she sang it beautifully, with simplicity and repose of style and with beautiful quality of voice. The accent of passion and dramatic fervor was in her performance of Beethoven's noble and recitative air 'Ah! Perfidio.'"

"Such singing as Mrs. Kelsey gave is that of an artist who has not only thought for the technical requirements of the music she undertakes, for phrasing, and for the niceties of enunciation; but also for the deeper qualities of emotion and the musical significance."

This expression from an exacting critic is of particular interest, in view of Mrs. Kelsey's first appearance to-morrow night, when her work will give ample opportunity for Richmond's musical critics to form their own opinions. With the music in keeping and all other conditions favorable, there is no prediction except for the great success of the May Festival this year.

had pure flour because it was "Patapsco."

The little stone mill turned out a rich, creamy, pure product that straightway became famous with a fame that today stands at the very top of the milling brands. "Patapsco" started when the nation started. What the nation is to the world today, "Patapsco" is to all other flours. That little stone mill has become the finest and most thoroughly equipped plant in America.

PATAPSCO FLOUR

has earned its laurels for the simple reason that it has always been and always will be the whitest, highest graded, purest flour that can be produced by human effort. The very look of the bread it makes—creamy, appetizing and rich—is its highest recommendation. YOU, the goodwife of 1907 have at your grocer's the best flour in the world. Can you afford to ignore it?
